

Do not relax the rules limiting ownership of radio stations and other media. These rules would benefit a handful of media giants to the detriment of the public interest. We need locally owned media and diversity of programming. Certain companies are already too powerful. Thank you.